

Information around the membership

With the first day of your membership, you are entitled to competent legal advice from our team. Please arrange appointments in advance with our office. On request, our lawyers will handle non-court correspondence in your tenancy matter. We also advise you at our branches in Zwingenberg, Erbach, Dieburg and Kranichstein. Appointments for the branch offices must be arranged through head office.

- Our membership fee for residential premises is € 75,00 for one year. The fee for commercial premises is € 150,00 for one year.
- When you join, a one-off joining fee of € 25,00 is charged. Please note that the membership and joining fees has to be paid before the first meeting with one of our lawyer.
- The minimum membership period is 24 months. After this period you can terminate yearly.
- Membership can be terminated only in written form.
- For schoolchildren, students and trainees we offer a special membership category. Please ask for details.
- For the correspondence conducted on your behalf, we charge a clerical fee of € 10,00 in each case.